ARETTE

The Orendain family has been our biggest supporter from day one and we could not have made it this far without them.

5 generations of Tequila legacy back the quality and craftsmanship of our most popular tequila in our portfolio.

The only thing one needs to worry about when drinking tequila arette is whether to sip or mix their delicious classic range or indulge in something slightly more balanced and with more depth in their artesanal range.

Rest assured, there are no wrong choices when it comes ot this label.

TERRALTA

Terralta Tequila is the fourth brand project from Felipe Camarena and his two sons, Alan and Luis, created at the infamous El Pandillo distillery in Jesus Maria, Los Altos.

Central to the flavour profiles created at El Pandillo is the source of water used and in the case of Terralta, it all comes from a deep well, 150 meters down in the earth, where the minerality and soil are king.

Where the other profiles are lofty and light, you'll find Terralta firmly secured in the ground from which the Agave grows.

The soils of Los Altos are rich in iron, giving them a red coloring and softness compared to the rockier soils of the Valley of Tequila.

AGAVE DISTILLATE

CABALLITO CERRERO

Caballito Cerrero ('The one that doesn't need horseshoes') was created in 1950 by Don Alfonso Jiménez Rosales after he left Tequila Herradura, a brand he co-founded. He crafted the spirit at the Santa Rita distillery, built in 1873 by his father-in-law, Maximiano Hernández Orozco.

His son Claudio continued producing Caballito Cerrero tequila until his death. In 2018, his descendants—the 15th generation of 'vino mezcal' artisans—chose to drop the 'Tequila' designation to preserve their agave-forward values and tradition, producing 'Caballito Cerrero' strictly as an Agave distillate.

EL JOLGORIO

The Cortes Family has been producing mezcal in Santiago Matatlan, Oaxaca since 1840. The El Jolgorio range of Mezcales was created to celebrate the different varieties of wild and semi-cultivated Agave found in the state of Oaxaca and the many Maestros Mezcaleros involved in their transformation into one of the worlds most sought after Mezcales. These, in many ways are the holy grail of Mezcal.

Their limited release black bottles are known to be reserved for species or Mezcales that can only be sourced in enough quatity to produce a batch of Mezcal once a year or less.

SPECIAL EDITIONS

SPECIAL EDITIONS REPRESENT THE MOST CREATIVE, EXPERIMENTAL, AND EXPRESSIVE SIDE OF TEQUILA CRAFTSMANSHIP. THESE LIMITED RELEASES ARE CONCEIVED AS TRIBUTES TO HERITAGE, INNOVATION, AND TIME, WHERE MASTER DISTILLERS PUSH TRADITIONAL PROCESSES TO THEIR LIMITS TO EXPLORE NEW DIMENSIONS OF AGAVE. EACH EDITION IS PRODUCED IN SMALL QUANTITIES, USING DISTINCTIVE PRODUCTION TECHNIQUES, RARE BLENDS, OR EXTENDED AGING, RESULTING IN TEQUILAS THAT ARE AS COLLECTIBLE AS THEY ARE EXTRAORDINARY. TOGETHER, THESE BOTTLES TELL THE STORY OF LEGACY, EXPERIMENTATION, AND THE RELENTLESS PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE.
